ABOUT THE LIBRARY
Welcome to the Abu Dhabi University (ADU) Library. The ADU Library serves as the primary information source for students, faculty and staff of the university, as well as others who visit the University. By combining the latest information technology with excellent public service, the library staff builds and maintains a rich information environment, facilitates access to it, and creates a place that functions as a hub of campus and community for scholarly activities.

WEBSITE
The Library website serves as the key to access information-rich academic contents both on and off campus. Patrons can access different resources by using the website, such as books or e-books, articles, e-journals, magazines, conference proceedings, dissertations and theses.

LIBRARY CATALOG
Library catalog is available online and provides information on all our records for Printed as well as Electronic Books (e-Books).

All the students, faculty and staff can access their Library Account Online from anywhere to check their Borrowing Status, Due Dates and Fines, if any. You can also renew your checked out books Online!

DATABASES
Abu Dhabi University Library owns subscription for more than a 100 databases in different subject areas plus some of the widely recognized multidisciplinary databases such as EBSCO, ProQuest, Springer and ScienceDirect.

LIBGUIDES
LibGuides – are guides to resources relevant to a particular subject or research topic. They are used to recommend useful websites. Plagiarism and Copyright LibGuide – is designed to share information on Copyright, Fair Use, and Plagiarism.

E-JOURNALS
E-Journals - The E-Journal Finder provides comprehensive access to the Library’s electronic journals.

GENERAL REFERENCES
Dictionaries, Encyclopedias and Handbooks - We offer commendable reference resources. Oxford Reference offers cross-searchable dictionary published by Oxford University Press. Britannica Online also offers variety of services covering a broad range of subjects.

E-FORMS
Online Forms - You can now find the Online versions of all the necessary forms which can either be filled Online/Printed, filled and handed to the Librarian for completing further formalities.

REQUEST A SESSION
Request Information Literacy/Library Instruction Session – Faculty can request the session as this will help the students in identifying the information needed to retrieve the best results for completing their assignments while making them aware of the ethical and legal issues regarding information use. It is advisable to book earlier in the semester in order to avoid conflicts in scheduling sessions. Each session is 15 to 20 minutes long.

INFORMATION LITERACY
Information literacy is more than just teaching students how to use the library. The goal of information literacy is to develop 21st-century information and technology competencies and the skills for lifelong learning. Information literate students are able to find, evaluate and use information effectively to solve problems and make decisions.
